About Your Third-Party Software Titles

Your iMac computer came with a variety of non-Apple software preinstalled on your hard disk, or on CD-ROM discs. If you have problems with non-Apple software, contact the software publisher using the support information below.

Important Always contact the software manufacturer if you need help with your software product. The Manufacturer is the best equipped to help you with the software products from companies other than Apple.

Note: Every effort has been made to ensure that the information is accurate.
